She is a Secretary of State appointed public commissioned notary public for over 12 years. She is CPR certified and has completed Crisis Response Training. She received her Bachelors' degree from LeMoyne Owen College in Memphis Tennessee. She received a Doctorate of Pharmacy degree from Xavier University of Louisiana, College of Pharmacy. Her background includes real estate investing, day trading and youth sports coaching. Dr. Hardaway-Jones serves as a Board of Trustees and Treasurer for House of Praise Ministry.

My father, brother, and godson are veterans. This is an exciting opportunity to help our veterans that have devoted their time to serve and to protect our country. I looking forward to sharing my gifts and talents as a Board member for Stafford Senior Care Management Services as we work to end veteran homelessness in Memphis, TN.
